Pueblo, Colo., May 20.—The beaviest hallstorm seen in this city for many years started at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Hail that weighed more than three ounces fell to a depth of an inch. Considerable damage was done and hundreds of windows were broken.

The principal business houses in the city having skylights and tile roofs are all damaged, and many merchants suffered losses of stock from the hail pouring through the broken skylights. The fruit trees in the vicinity are stripped and early vegetables pounded into the ground, while every hothouse within the storm radius is a total wreck.

Some of the hailstones measured fourteen inches in circumference. In several instances the largest stones punctured shingled roofs and fell through to the floor. Nearly 100 persons were injured by being struck with big hailstones. Two Mexican children living at Sait Creek were reported killed by the storm; but the story cannot be confirmed. Telegraph and telephone wires were considerably damaged.
